Hi Caroline,

Thanks for raising this, I've noticed the parking also – I'll chase up with Jonathan Munslow at SGC. Do you mind if I forward your e-mail so he can update us all in one?

Cheers,

Rachael

Hi Kath,

Since parts of Emersons Way has been resurfaced the road markings have not been put back. I accept that they often leave it a short while before white-lining etc, but this has now run into weeks. The worst examples are the lack of zig-zags either side of the Zebra crossing between Sainsbury's and the Library and also no white markings on the road hump just after the entrance to Emersons Way from Westerleigh Road (not even a temporary warning sign). There have been lots of complaints about the zebra crossing on the EG, Mangotsfield and Downend residents Facebook site, apparently vans are parking either side and blocking views. These are safety issues and I wonder if we can alert South Glos with our concerns and find out when they plan to finish the job.

Kind regards,
Caroline
